

REMARKS AND ARGUMENTS

Claim 1 stands rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103 in view of Schneider (US 4,626,250). It is respectfully submitted that, as currently amended, the present invention is clearly distinguishable from Schneider. All previous arguments of Applicant are reurged in light of these amendments. Further, the amended claim clearly recites a primary receiver unit of substantially shape-retaining material, which gives the present invention a recited physical structure such as clearly distinguishes it over Schneider.

In view of the above, it is submitted that Claim 1 is in a condition for allowance. Reconsideration and withdrawal of the rejections and objections are hereby requested. Allowance of Claim 1 at an early date is solicited.

If impediments to allowance of Claim 1 remain and a telephone conference between the undersigned and the examiner would help remove such impediments in the opinion of the examiner, a telephone conference is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,
